This stacking Chippendale-inspired chair gives our function room customers an elegant alternative to our earlier design, the King & Prince. Like the King & Prince, this chair is engineered with our proprietary Eustis Joint[®], and comes with a 20 year warranty. What's more, the University Club stacks up to 8 chairs high, making them very easy to move and store.

The University Club chair has been going into dining rooms at upscale clubs, so it was only a matter of time before a client asked for an arm chair version. Our designer was able to create an arm standard that enhances the elegance of this great Chippendale design, and yet still meet the special requirements to be able to stack at least 6 chairs high. And because they are engineered with our proprietary Eustis Joint[®], the arms are almost as strong as the rest of the
