BURLINGAME CHAIR

The Burlingame Chair, by Eustis Chair, has the comfort of a modern office chair without giving up the traditional and durable design of a custom hardwood chair.

Burlingame Public was the first library to purchase a Eustis Joint® chair. With no failures in 18 years, it is no surprise that library Director Pat Harding called us again when they needed chairs for a new library branch. At her request, we designed the first swivel-base wood chair in our line.
